

Rosemary Orgren, PhD

Community Member, Retired

Rosemary Orgren is a community member who retired in 2013 from Dartmouth Medical School as the founding director of the New Hampshire Area Health Education Center, New Hampshire Public Health Training Center, and Health Careers Institute at Dartmouth (a summer camp experience for high school age youth). Her masters and doctoral degrees are in the field of higher education, with a focus on social psychology and aging. Currently, Dr. Orgren is a member and on the board of the Handel Society of Dartmouth College; a juried member and on the board of the New Hampshire League of Craftsmen (Hanover Branch); and on the board of the Public Health Council of the Upper Valley.